This yearbook staff has preserved an excellent record of the highlights of the school year, 1953-54. These pages will continue to refresh our memories of school friends and events as time makes their recollection more and more precious. We cannot read this book without feeling proud of Southwest students and their achievements. Congratulations to them for a year well spent! Best wishes as we look confidently to your future.

W. ROY MEANS

Interested in all young people, Mr. W. Roy Means, who passed away last July, will long be remembered as a dear friend, a man of honest purpose, and an able instructor. Many students in our Social Studies department and on the Sachem staff, of which he was photographic adviser, attest his sympathetic understanding of their problems. The warmth and vitality instilled in our school by him serve as a fitting memorial to his spirit. In sincere appreciation of his worth and of his loyalty to his friends, his school, and his profession, we dedicate this book to him.

senior business committee

As THE long-awaited senior year becomes a reality for Southwest students, the traditional election of class officers gets under way as one of its highlights. This takes place during October as each senior votes for the seven officers and the business committee that will direct senior activities toward the ultimate goal of graduation. The business committee is divided into sub-committees that are responsible for such activities as the selection of a class gift we leave for the school, the Junior-Senior Prom, the senior play, Baccalaureate Sunday, and, finally, Commencement itself. These activities in his climaxing year of high school will become strong memories of each senior. When we pass across the stage in our own school auditorium and receive our diplomas, we shall be impelled to say, "Thank you, Southwest, for preparing me to meet the world ahead with a better foundation, a better grasp, and a higher goal than I would have had otherwise."

Extra! Extra! Read all about it!
We're gonna win, and there's no doubt about it!
When you're up, you're up;
When you're down, you're down—
When you're up against Southwest,
You're upside down!

We're loyal Indians and we know we'll win,
But to prove it to the other team—hit 'em again!
Now, you hit 'em with your darnedest and with all your might,
And we won't give in till we win this fight!

HOUSE

HAWTHORNE

COACH HOUSE Athletics at Southwest during the past years has achieved numerous championships, largely due to the superior coaching and inspiration of Louis A. House. Succeeding teams have learned the real game from this veteran of the sports world. "Coach," through untiring efforts, has boosted Southwest to the top of the achievement ladder in all athletic events. A fitting tribute to an excellent coach are his teams, noted for sportsmanship, good conduct, and skill on the athletic field.

COACH HAWTHORNE Although a more recent addition to the coaching staff at Southwest, Kenneth Hawthorne, "the red-headed wizard" of the basketball court, has added much to student appreciation of athletics. Through his efforts, many teams "plagued with inconsistency," have earned themselves places in the Interscholastic league annals. Positions in the regionals, too, have added other jewels to Southwest's athletic crown through the able coaching of Mr. Kenneth Hawthorne.

EWING

FISHER

COACH EWING Always important for the proper development of top athletic squads is the coach of the "B" team, track and basketball. Many a varsity player will remember Coach Ewing for his fine efforts spent in bringing underclass gym students to their peak—berths on the varsity team. Long will a Southwest winner remember George C. Ewing for his fatherly interest displayed in their development. Much credit is due this splendid coach for his part in the building of Southwest's star teams.

MR. FISHER Even the champions must be kept on a paying basis, and this end is creditably accomplished by A. O. Fisher, business manager. His friendly talks in assemblies and his cheery manner at the gate have made paying for our victories relatively painless. A bow to A. O. Fisher is in order!

track — 1953 — champions

SOUTHWEST'S cinder men left no stone unturned on their quest for victories last spring. Beginning a long and profitable season by capturing the Big Seven indoor title in February, Southwest's powerhouse set a fast and furious pace throughout the entire season. Outstanding performances in such events as the dashes, hurdles, shot put, and pole vault proved successful as record after record fell before this dauntless team. A fitting conclusion to the record-breaking season of Southwest's tracksters was the State Championship, the Indians' first in many years of competition. The picture above is typical of the fine performances turned in by last year's victorious team.

THE INDIAN eleven were forced to share victories with defeat last fall. Despite the absence of returning lettermen, they began their season with an unexpected show of strength against Shawnee-Mission. Lacking experience, the Southwest team was not quite up to par throughout the season; however, team after team fell before the Indians in their attempt for another championship.

A mid-season defeat by Northeast put a damper on their chances for the trophy. After defeating Paseo, 33-0 the following week, their bid for an Inter-scholastic league co-championship was shattered in a heart-breaking struggle against Southeast.

A compensating thrill came to Southwest students when our weary team battled the favored William Chrisman of Independence to a 13-0 victory.

With next year's team bolstered by the return of six lettermen, Southwest looks forward to the coming football season with high hopes.

Buzzy Block	Larry Buccero	Mike Crowley	Ronnie Gore	Jim Green
Ed Hill	Phil Hoover	George Hotchkiss	Don Nelson	Spike Potts
Tom Scott	Ronnie Silverman	Tom Spencer	Steve Talge	Doug Waldo

Buzzy Block

Buzz was the speedster of the backfield and was called upon constantly to perform.

Larry Buccero

One of the toughest guards in the city last year, the "Little Rock" led the team in fighting spirit.

Mike Crowley

Although a junior, this quick-stepping player saw plenty of action. He will be fine material for next year's team.

Ronnie Gore

Just a junior, Ronnie was quite instrumental in throwing key blocks in many a play. He will repeat his prowess on next year's team.

Jim Green

This rugged junior played a mighty important role as an end this year. We are all expecting big things from him next year.

Ed Hill

"Swivel Hips" was co-captain of the team. He received honorable mention on the All-City team for his fine broken field running.

Phil Hoover

Phil doubled at the end and backfield positions last season to prove a most versatile player.

George Hotchkiss

One of the backs on last year's squad, George proved to be a valuable player.

Don Nelson

Originally slated for the guard position, Don proved a very adept end and received honorable mention on the All-City team.

Spike Potts

Although an injury sidelined this clever junior member of the backfield, Spike will have a major part in next year's offensives.

Tom Scott

"Big Tom," a tackle, made the All-City football squad last season. He bolstered the line with his fine play.

Ronnie Silverman

"Silver," co-captain of this year's eleven, proved to be a very hard driving back. Ron was also a member of the All-City team.

Tom Spencer

Tom, another tackle for the team, proved a very dependable lineman through his fine blocking.

Steve Talge

A junior who made honorable mention as a guard on the All-City team, Steve is expected to be a capable lineman next year.

Doug Waldo

Although Doug was just a junior last season, he received honorable mention as a guard on the All-City team.

Frank Turner

Not in panel. Frank proved to be a very dependable center, especially when the "chips" were down. He received first team on the All-City lineup and honorable mention on the All-State team.

As an exciting season progressed, six victories and three defeats were the harvest of Southwest's Second Team. This promising young group showed great strength against the two favored teams of the season, defeating Shawnee-Mission 19-7 and Southeast 13-6. The bravelets' only upsets were at the hands of Northeast and Wyandotte.

basketball

HAMPERED by injuries and inexperience, the Southwest cagers were unable to reach high gear before mid-season. This hard-fighting team, however, displayed a great deal of hustle and spirit on the floor and often showed signs of "budding professionalism" in their ball-handling. Under the encouragement and coaching of the "red head" Kenneth Hawthorne, the Indians, a squad strong in underclassmen, were not only able to maintain a fourth place in the league, but also won itself a place in the regional tourney. In a non-league thriller against the Alumni squad, the Southwest net-men held true to past records by defeating the favored college group. Speaking well for teams of future years is the fact that Steve Wochos, a sophomore, was the second highest scorer in the city with a total of thirty-five points amassed in the Paseo contest. The use of two boys from the second string squad in the last game also shows strength in coming years. Bolstered by the return of many lettermen, next year's squad will be expected to excel.

Upper Row

Dave Davidson

As a forward, Dave was the team's second high scorer of the season and a fine rebounder.

Bill Doty

Bill, also a forward, was a rugged rebounder. A great deal will be expected from this junior next year.

Ronnie Gore

Ronnie, at the guard position, was the team's set shot artist and will be counted on heavily in the coming season.

Eddie Hill

As a guard, Eddie was the floor player of this year's squad. He proved to be a great asset to the team because of his spirit and "hustle."

Lower Row

Spike Potts

Another one of the fine forwards this year, Spike, in spite of his injuries early in the season, played a good game.

Ronnie Silverman

At the guard post, Ronnie proved to be a real asset to this year's squad because of his excellent ball handling.

Jerry Waisblum

Jerry's fancy ball handling at the guard spot made him a valuable player to this year's team.

Steve Wochos

This young sophomore center was the league's second high scorer. He will be depended upon for next year's championship drive.

AGAIN under the coaching of George C. Ewing, Southwest's junior cagers displayed a great deal of spark on the basketball court. Like their older brothers, the B squad was a little slow in reaching their peak of performance. However, once under way, these hard-fighting boys made a fine showing.
